Utah Orchestra To Perform Here

The Utah Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Maurice Abravanel, will present a concert at Forum Assembly in the Smith Fieldhouse Thursday.

CROWNING ACHIEVEMENT

Maestro Abravanel has been musical director and conductor of the Utah Symphony since he came to Salt Lake City in 1947. It has been chiefly under his direction that the Orchestra has risen in stature and taken a place among the major orchestras of America.

His crowning achievement was taking the orchestra to his native Greece last August. The tour also included concerts in several countries on the Continent.

The Utah ensemble, consisting of 85 musicians, has been engaged in a recording program since 1958. Newspapers and magazines all over the U.S. praise the quality of their work.

YOUNGEST CONDUCTOR

Mr. Abravanel has conducted many of the world's leading orchestras including the New York Philharmonic, Berlin Philharmonic, Philadelphia Orchestra, NBC Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, Sydney (Australia) Symphony and others. He was the youngest conductor ever engaged by the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York.

Since coming to Utah he has made orchestral music available to tens of thousands of Utah music lovers and school children, and has encouraged Utah composers by programming their works.

One Injury Reported

Injury of the wife of a BYU student is the only serious traffic injury reported to the BYU from the holiday vacation, according to LaVar Rockwood, assistant director of Student Personnel Services.

Mrs. Greg Hall, wife of a sophomore zoology major from Manhattan Beach, Calif., is in a coma in a Los Angeles hospital following a traffic accident. Her husband will not return to school.

No other serious accidents to Y students have been reported.

Maurice Abravanel, musical director and conductor of the Utah Symphony Orchestra, will present a concert at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Smith Fieldhouse. Abravanel has conducted leading world orchestras, including the New York Philharmonic, Berlin Philharmonic, Philadelphia Orchestra, NBC Symphony and others.

Elder Victor L. Brown Speaks At Devotional

"You would have reached perfection, if you had followed the advice given you during the 1966 devotionals."

Addressing the students was Victor L. Brown at BYU's Devotional Assembly Tuesday in the Smith Fieldhouse. Elder Brown said he had read all 1966 Devotional speeches.

Elder Brown is the second Counselor in the Presiding Bishopric of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Talking on the second coming of Jesus Christ, Elder Brown told of a young sailor who sat next to him on a flight from Mexico. He said the sailor was preparing to depart for South Vietnam after his Christmas leave.

"He startled me by asking if I believed Jesus Christ was coming to the earth again," Elder Brown said. "Since that meeting, I have thought a great deal about the second coming of Jesus Christ, and how the Church is preparing for it."

According to Elder Brown, the time of the second coming has not been revealed to test people's faith on the event.

He said today the gospel has been preached as never before in preparation for the second coming of Christ. "Those keeping the commandments shall know of Christ's coming," he said.

Dr. Andrus To Review 'Eternal Man'

Book reviews will begin again today when Eternal Man, by Dr. Truman Madsen, will be discussed by Dr. Hyrum Andrus of the BYU Religion Department.

The review will begin at 4:10 p.m. in 374 Wilkinson Center. Reviews will be held bimonthly for the rest of the school year, with times and places to be announced prior to each review.

A list of future reviews is now available in the Academics Office, 434 Wilkinson Center.

Elder Victor L. Brown, second counselor in the Presiding Bishopric, addressed the student body Tuesday in the first Devotional Assembly of 1967. He spoke of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, indicating that the Church is now preparing for it.

Smith, head of the advisement program, announced that adjustment be completed by 12.

Tickets Are Now Available For Lute Song Performances

The pageantry and drama of the Far East will come to BYU when the Drama Department presents "Lute Song" today through Jan. 16.

The musical production will be performed nightly except Tuesdays and Sundays in the Pandos Drama Theater at 8:15 p.m. Tickets are available at the Fine Arts Center Ticket Office from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. daily.

"Lute Song" was acted out by strolling players and showboat troupes and is the melding, with music and dances, of the 500-year-old Chinese classic.

Dr. Luel J. Woodbury, chairman of the Dramatic Arts Department, is directing the play, assisted by Dorothy Behling, a dramatic arts student.

The story tells of a devoted wife, played by Karen Ottosen, who cares for her husband's parents while he goes to the capital to win fame and fortune. The husband, played by Steve Covington, acquires both but is forced to marry the Prince's daughter.

After the old people die and are buried with the honor due them, the wife takes her husband's lute and wanders across mountains and valleys until she is at last reunited with him.

This Chinese classic, adapted for the stage by Will Irwin and Sidney Howard, tells both simply and extravagantly of human weakness and suffering, of human charity and courage.

Cougars Fall To Small Marquette; Fifth Loss

Brigham Young's cougars suffered their fifth loss of the season at the hands of the Marquette Warriors Monday night in Milwaukee as the small but opportunistic Warriors broke open a close contest in the second half to win by an 81-70 count.

The Warrior key was the shooting of senior guard and team captain Bob Wolf, as the 6-foot-shooter—held to only four first half points—canhied 18 after the intermission to lead the second half surge.

A 6-2 forward named George

Thompson proved to be the man of the hour in the first half, as he came through with 10 points—most of them on rebound shots. Thompson and 6-4 Paul Carls, the Warrior center, got almost everything that came off the boards. Carls wound up the night with 10 points while Thompson, only a sophomore, managed 16.

Big Craig Raymond, playing one of his best defensive games, was also high point man for the Cougars as he put in 20 points. Raymond blocked at least 10 opponents shots, and his presence in the lane discouraged other close-in attempts.

Art Collection On Display In Harris Fine Arts Center

An exhibit of 35 paintings from the Abbott Laboratories fine art collection is on display in the B.F. Larsen Gallery of the Harris Fine Arts Center. The exhibit is being shown under the auspices of the American Federation of Arts, and will run until Jan. 24.

The show includes the work of a wide range of distinguished artists, from abstractionists to realists and romanticists. Among them are Salvador Dali, Thomas Hart Benton, Grant Wood, Marsden Hartley, Charles Burchfield, Fernand Leger, Rene Magritte, Maurice Utrillo, Joe Jones, Milton Avery, Jimmy Ernst, and John Stewart Curry. Both Americans and Europeans are represented.

Most of the paintings were selected from the Abbott Collection of more than 400 works by Harris K. Prior, of the American Federation of Arts. Considered one of the finest owned by an industrial corporation, the collection is especially unique because each of the pictures has been reproduced in the Abbott advertisement in physics.

Abbott began to use original art in the mid-thirties under the guidance of Charles S. Downs. Many of the selections have appeared in full color on the covers of Abbott's publication distributed to physicians in this country and abroad. After the paintings were reproduced, they were hung in the offices and corridors of the company's plant at North Chicago, Illinois. (Abbott is a major ethical pharmaceutical manufacturer.) Various collections of these works have been circulated for exhibition at museums, universities, and civic art centers in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

BYU Radio Productions To Expand

University Broadcasting Service Network, by which BYU provides program tapes to radio stations, will expand its service to all states and in Canada in 1967.

At the present time 45 stations across the country are subscribing to the BYU shows, but the number will rise to 75 early next year, according to Earl J. Glade Jr., director of Broadcast Services.

CIRCULATE TAPES

The tapes are mailed to the stations on a circulating basis. The system is not to be confused with the current 26-week series of BYU good music programs being carried on the ABC national network.

UBSN was devised in 1933 to enable parents of BYU students to learn more about University activities. Only ten radio stations agreed to carry the two programs "BYU Devotional of the Air" and "Concert Hall." Since that time the program has grown to international proportions.

UBSN offers, without charge, four programs for use by any interested radio station. "Devotional of the Air" still remains after 13 successful years, but it has been joined by "Patterns of America," "Americana," and "Coconut Hall."

SHOWS ON AMERICA

"Patterns of America" includes shows about American holidays, customs, events, celebrations, and interviews with various prominent Americans. "Americana" is a show devoted to the sounds and music depicting the American way of life. The one-hour show tells the story of significant holidays and historical events. It was awarded the 1965 Freedoms Foundation medal as "an outstanding accomplishment in helping to achieve a better understanding of the American way of life."

Symbol of love and consistency, a lute is presented to her husband in the BYU production of "Lute Song."

BYU Is The Largest Church School In

Two recent surveys show BYU is the largest church-related university in the United States.

Figures released this week by Pennsylvania's Department of Public Instruction and by the University of Cincinnati place BYU 16th and 24th, respectively, among colleges having the largest enrollment. But none of the universities having more students is affiliated with a church.

BYU-NO. 16

On the basis of a 1965 enrollment of 17,553 full-time students, BYU is listed as the 16th largest institution of higher learning in the nation, according to the Pennsylvania study.

Dr. Garland G. Parker, University of Cincinnati's college enrollment authority, places BYU 24th after a comparison of 1966 enrollment figures, but he lists at the top of his chart entire state systems such as the State University of New York, 119,190; the California State Colleges, 112,394; and the University of California (all campuses) 121,908.

THE NUMBERS GAME

Heading the Pennsylvania list of full-time students is Ohio State with 35,894, followed by Illinois, 34,761; Michigan State, 28,416; Indiana, 30,977; Wisconsin, 26,475; Michigan, 26,446; California at Berkeley, 26,038; Texas, 24,663; UCLA, 23,732; Washington, 23,518; Maryland, 22,044; Penn State, 21,941; Purdue, 19,995; Louisiana State, 19,156; Southern Illinois, 18,790; Brigham Young 17,553.

Other area schools on Pennsylvania's "Big 30" list are the University of Arizona, 20th with 15,639; University of Colorado, 21st with 15,620; and University of Utah, 24th with 14,430.

Dr. Parker reports that there is a small decrease in enrollment this year, drop in freshmen sin

However, Dr. Parker shows that in the 17 universities and colleges in the United States there are 855,279 students—part-time—an overall 5.8 per cent from last
